

Portrait / principles

- The Beatrice-Caterina Zai Foundation is a non-profit organization based in Sarnen, Switzerland.
- The foundation supports projects to fight poverty, especially in the areas of education, environment, hygiene and medicine. The foundation is dedicated to support young girls in need in particular.
- The foundation supports cultural events in its region and the maintenance of local culture objects. Nature conservation projects and environmental-related projects are supported as well.
- All religions, ethnics and cultures are respected equally.

Requirements

- Projects seeking support must be sustainable, taking into account social, economic and environmental aspects.
- Projects seeking support must be clearly defined. Projects with a clear connection to the beneficiaries are more likely to be considered.
- The application for support contribution must contain: project description, timetable, funding and reporting. The application can be complemented with further documents, such as blueprints, business plan, action plan, annual reports.
- Applications must be submitted to the office of the foundation. Contact person and legitimation of the organisation must be listed.
- Application forms can be obtained by contacting the office of the foundation.